

Fairview welcomes comedy

The marquee outside Chateau Plaza in Fairview Heights includes a new sign for Hey Guys Comedy, a comedy club that will open next month.

According to information posted by the business, the comedy club is scheduled to open at the shopping center, at 5225 N. Illinois St. in Fairview Heights.

The site was initially built for sports bar McDoogles Sports Grill and Gamery in 2005. Another sports bar, restaurant and pool hall called Baxter's, later took over that space before moving out three years ago. Most recently, a formal dining restaurant known as Cupids Steakhouse had operated from there before closing last year.

Hey Guys Comedy plans to open its doors on July 11.

A men's hair salon will open soon in Fairview Heights. Gentlemen Cuts will be located at 319 Lincoln Highway in Fairview Heights.

And finally, Impact Strategies has started construction of Home Goods, a home and fashion retail store, at the Fairview City Centre near the corner of North Illinois Street and Lincoln Trail in Fairview Heights. The Fairview Heights-based construction-management firm has been redeveloping the site, where Office Max and Sports Authority have recently opened and organic grocery store, Fresh Thyme Farmers Market, is also under construction. Home Goods is anticipated to open later this year.
