

WILL BUSS
RETAIL ROUNDUP

Mexican restaurant opens today

Taquerias Olvera opens its doors today in Fairview Heights.

The new Mexican restaurant advertises a menu featuring authentic Mexican food. To get a taste, visit them at 341 Market Place Drive, or call 618-398-9840.

Cloud 9 Cafe, Lounge & Emporium is a new venue at Chateau Plaza in Fairview Heights that invites consumers to enjoy fresh coffee, pastries and more while enjoying local art. The owners hope to provide a place for local and student artists to display their creations and promote their work. Live bands will soon be added for weekend performances. Free Wi-fi and TV are also included. Call 618-416-7767 for more information.

A Fairview Heights landscaping service has a new name. Owner Josh Marties took over Scott's Landscaping in 2012 and has renamed the business Creative Landscapes Ltd. The landscaping business opened in 1990. You can still find them at 5515 Old Collinsville Road. Call 618-632-9338 or go online to www.STLCreativeLandscapes.com to find out more.

And finally, a car audio retailer is currently moving into a former fire station in Fairview Heights. Custom Sounds is relocating its store and all its inventory from 5350 N. Illinois St. in Fairview Heights across town in the former fire house on Lincoln Highway. The Austin, Texas-based business does not expect to complete the move until sometime later this year. In the meantime, you can still reach the store at 618-235-3730.